

Recruitment Pocket Book

Instructions

The Recruitment Pocket Book is your on-the-go resource to assist you with talking to others about SkillsUSA.

This tool can help you answer the following questions:

- How should I talk to others about SkillsUSA?
- Who should I talk to about SkillsUSA?
- What should I be talking about?

Print your pocket book or use it as a digital version. For best use, print your book and attach a binder ring to use as an on-the-go tool.

It's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

HOW

should I talk to others
about SkillsUSA?

Invite 3 new friends to a SkillsUSA Meeting

Share with 2 returning students about SkillsUSA

Tell 1 underclassman
about SkillsUSA

Who are the 3 new friends you are inviting?

Who are the 2 students you are sharing with?

Who is the 1 underclassman you are telling?

WHAT

should I tell others
about SkillsUSA?

3 stories of your SkillsUSA experience

(Travel opportunities, connecting with employers, scholarships, meeting friends, and more!)

2 examples of chapter activities

(Meetings, community service projects, competitions, recruitment events, and more!)

The number 1 workforce development organization for students.

What are the 3 stories you are sharing?

What are the 2 examples of activities?

What is 1 more fact you can share about SkillsUSA?
